RESIDENTIAL HALLS FOR MEN

The system of Residential Halls for Men at Cornell University at present consists of Cascadilla Hall, the original building at the South end of the Campus, and four new halls comprising Baker Court and Residential Hall D. These latter buildings form the nucleus of the new group of dormitories lying to the West of the main Quadrangle and bounded by Stewart, University and West Avenues.

Cascadilla Hall is a stone building, with an adequate system of fire escapes and automatic fire-alarms. It furnishes accommodations for about 170 men. It is divided into four sections, each with separate entrance and fire-proof stairways. The four new buildings are of fire-proof construction throughout and afford accommodations for about 250 men.

ROOMS

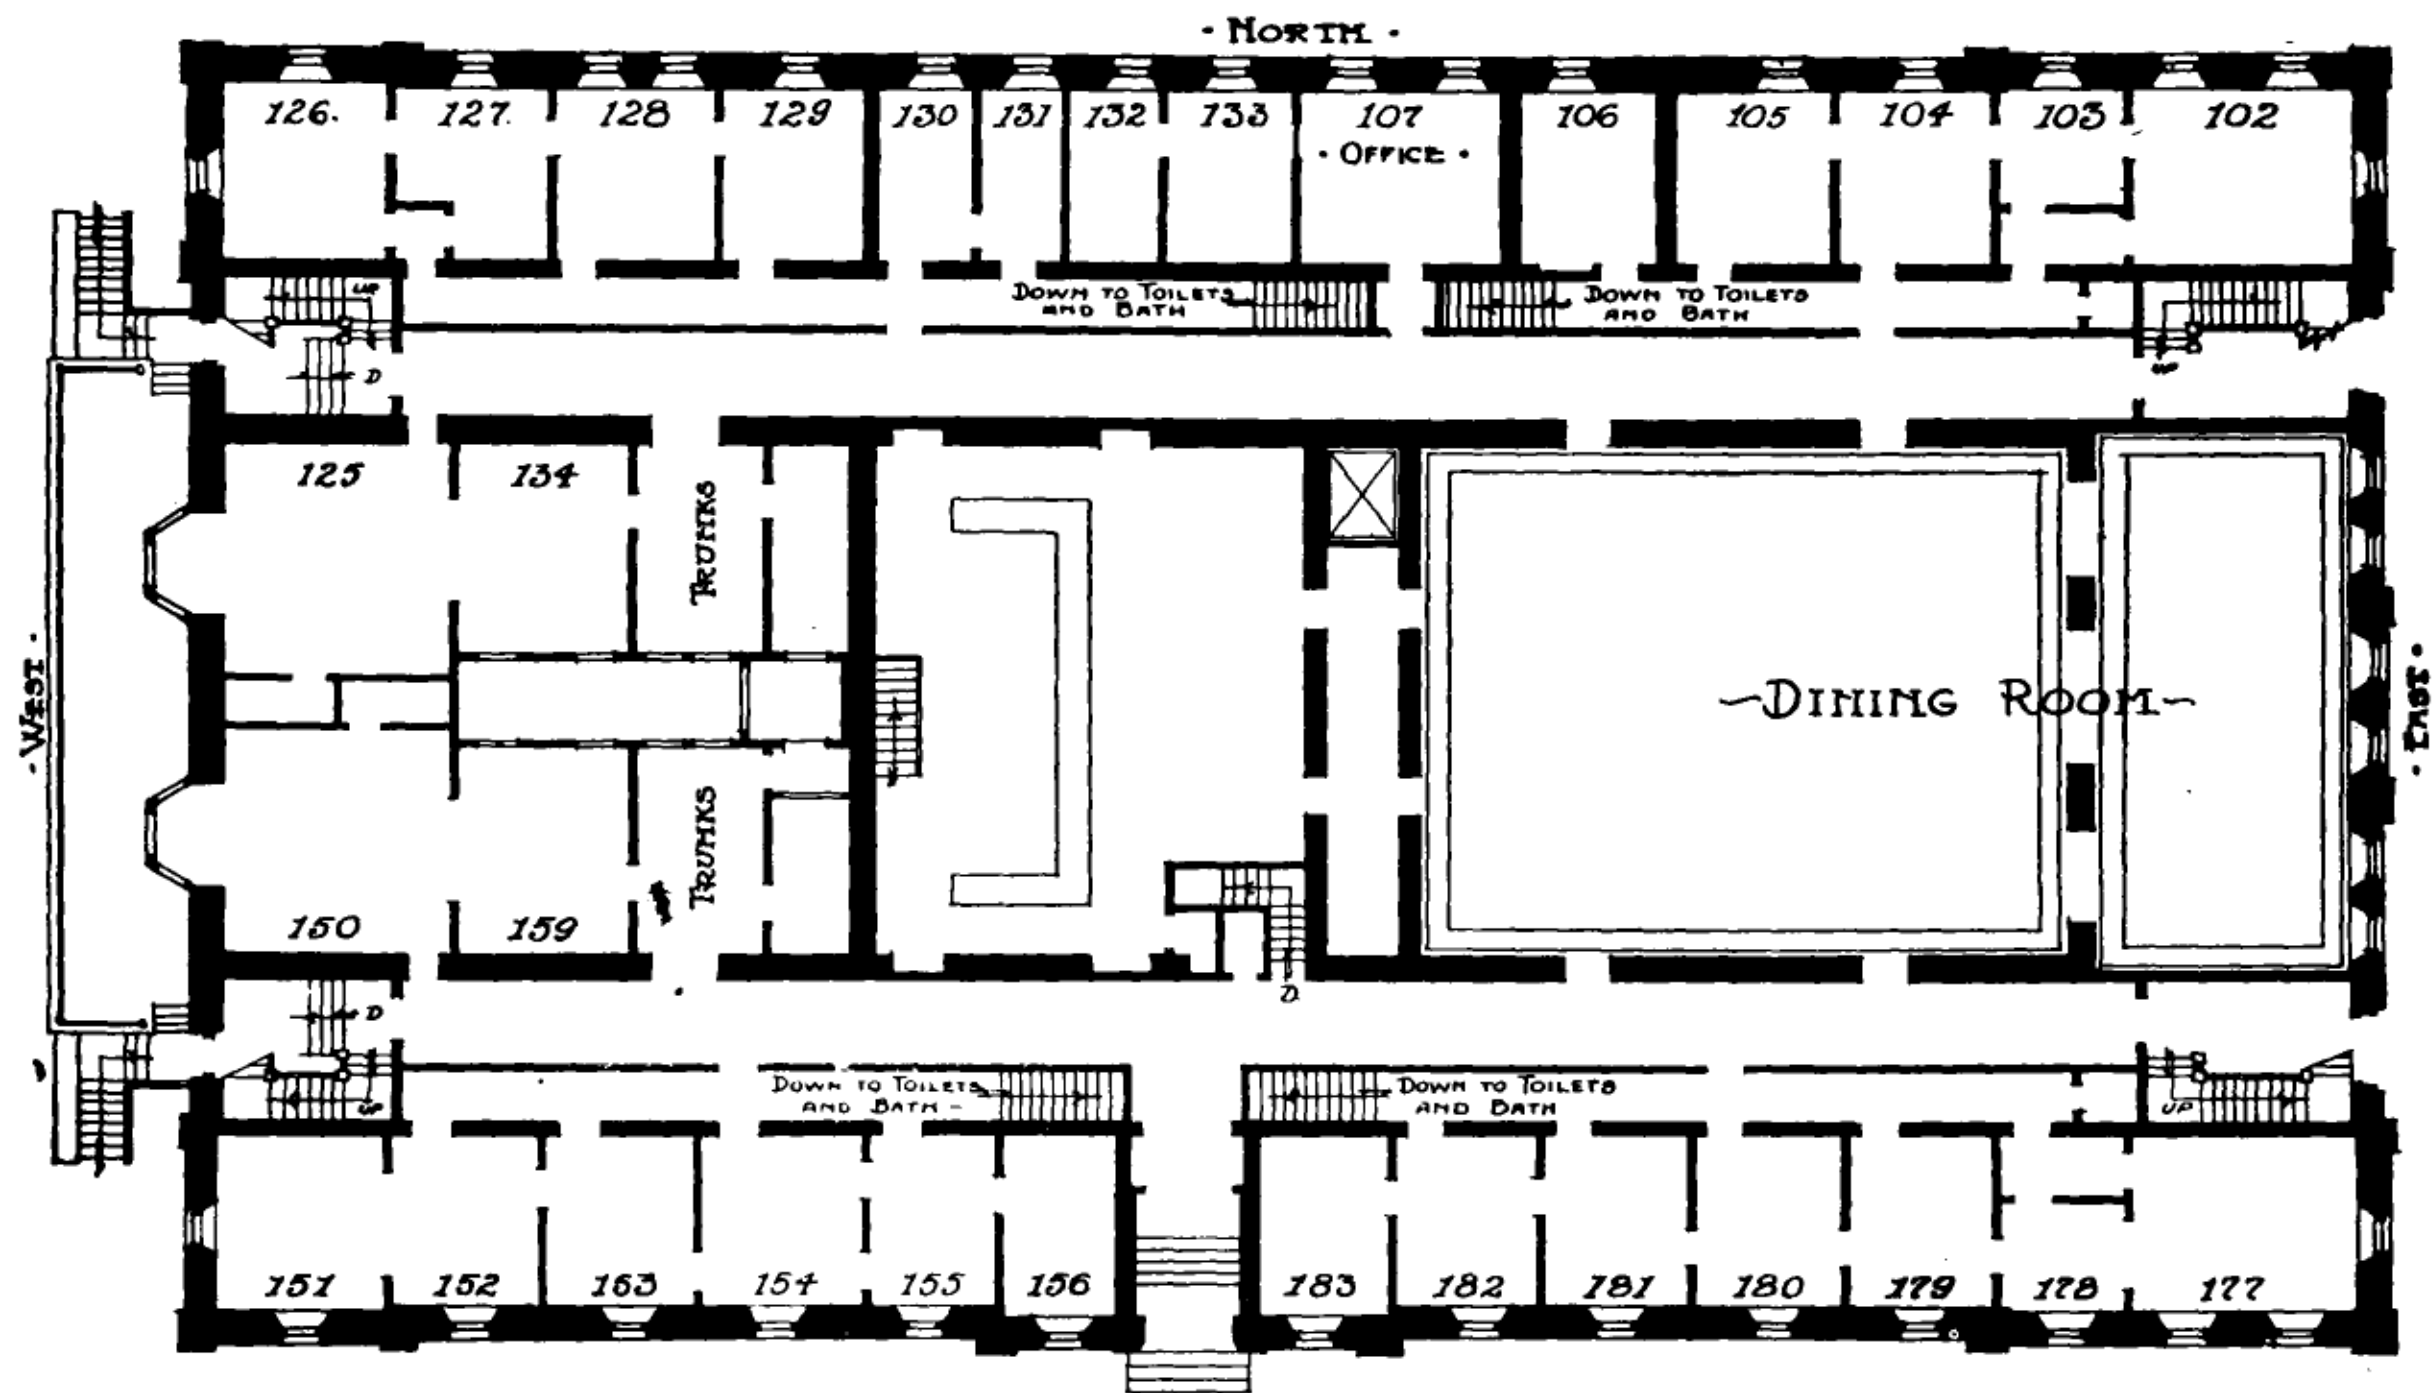

The accompanying diagrams show the location and relative sizes of the rooms. The average rent of a single room in Cascadilla Hall is about $105 for the year or $2.75 per week. The average price in the new buildings is about $115 or $3 per week. A complete list of rooms and prices will be found on the last pages of this booklet.

FURNISHINGS

Rooms are furnished with rug, desk, desk chair, morris chair, bent-wood chair, bureau, iron bedstead 3' x 6' 6". couch cover, curtains, bedding and bed linen. Bed linen is laundered by the University free of charge. All rooms are heated by steam and lighted by electricity.

GOVERNMENT

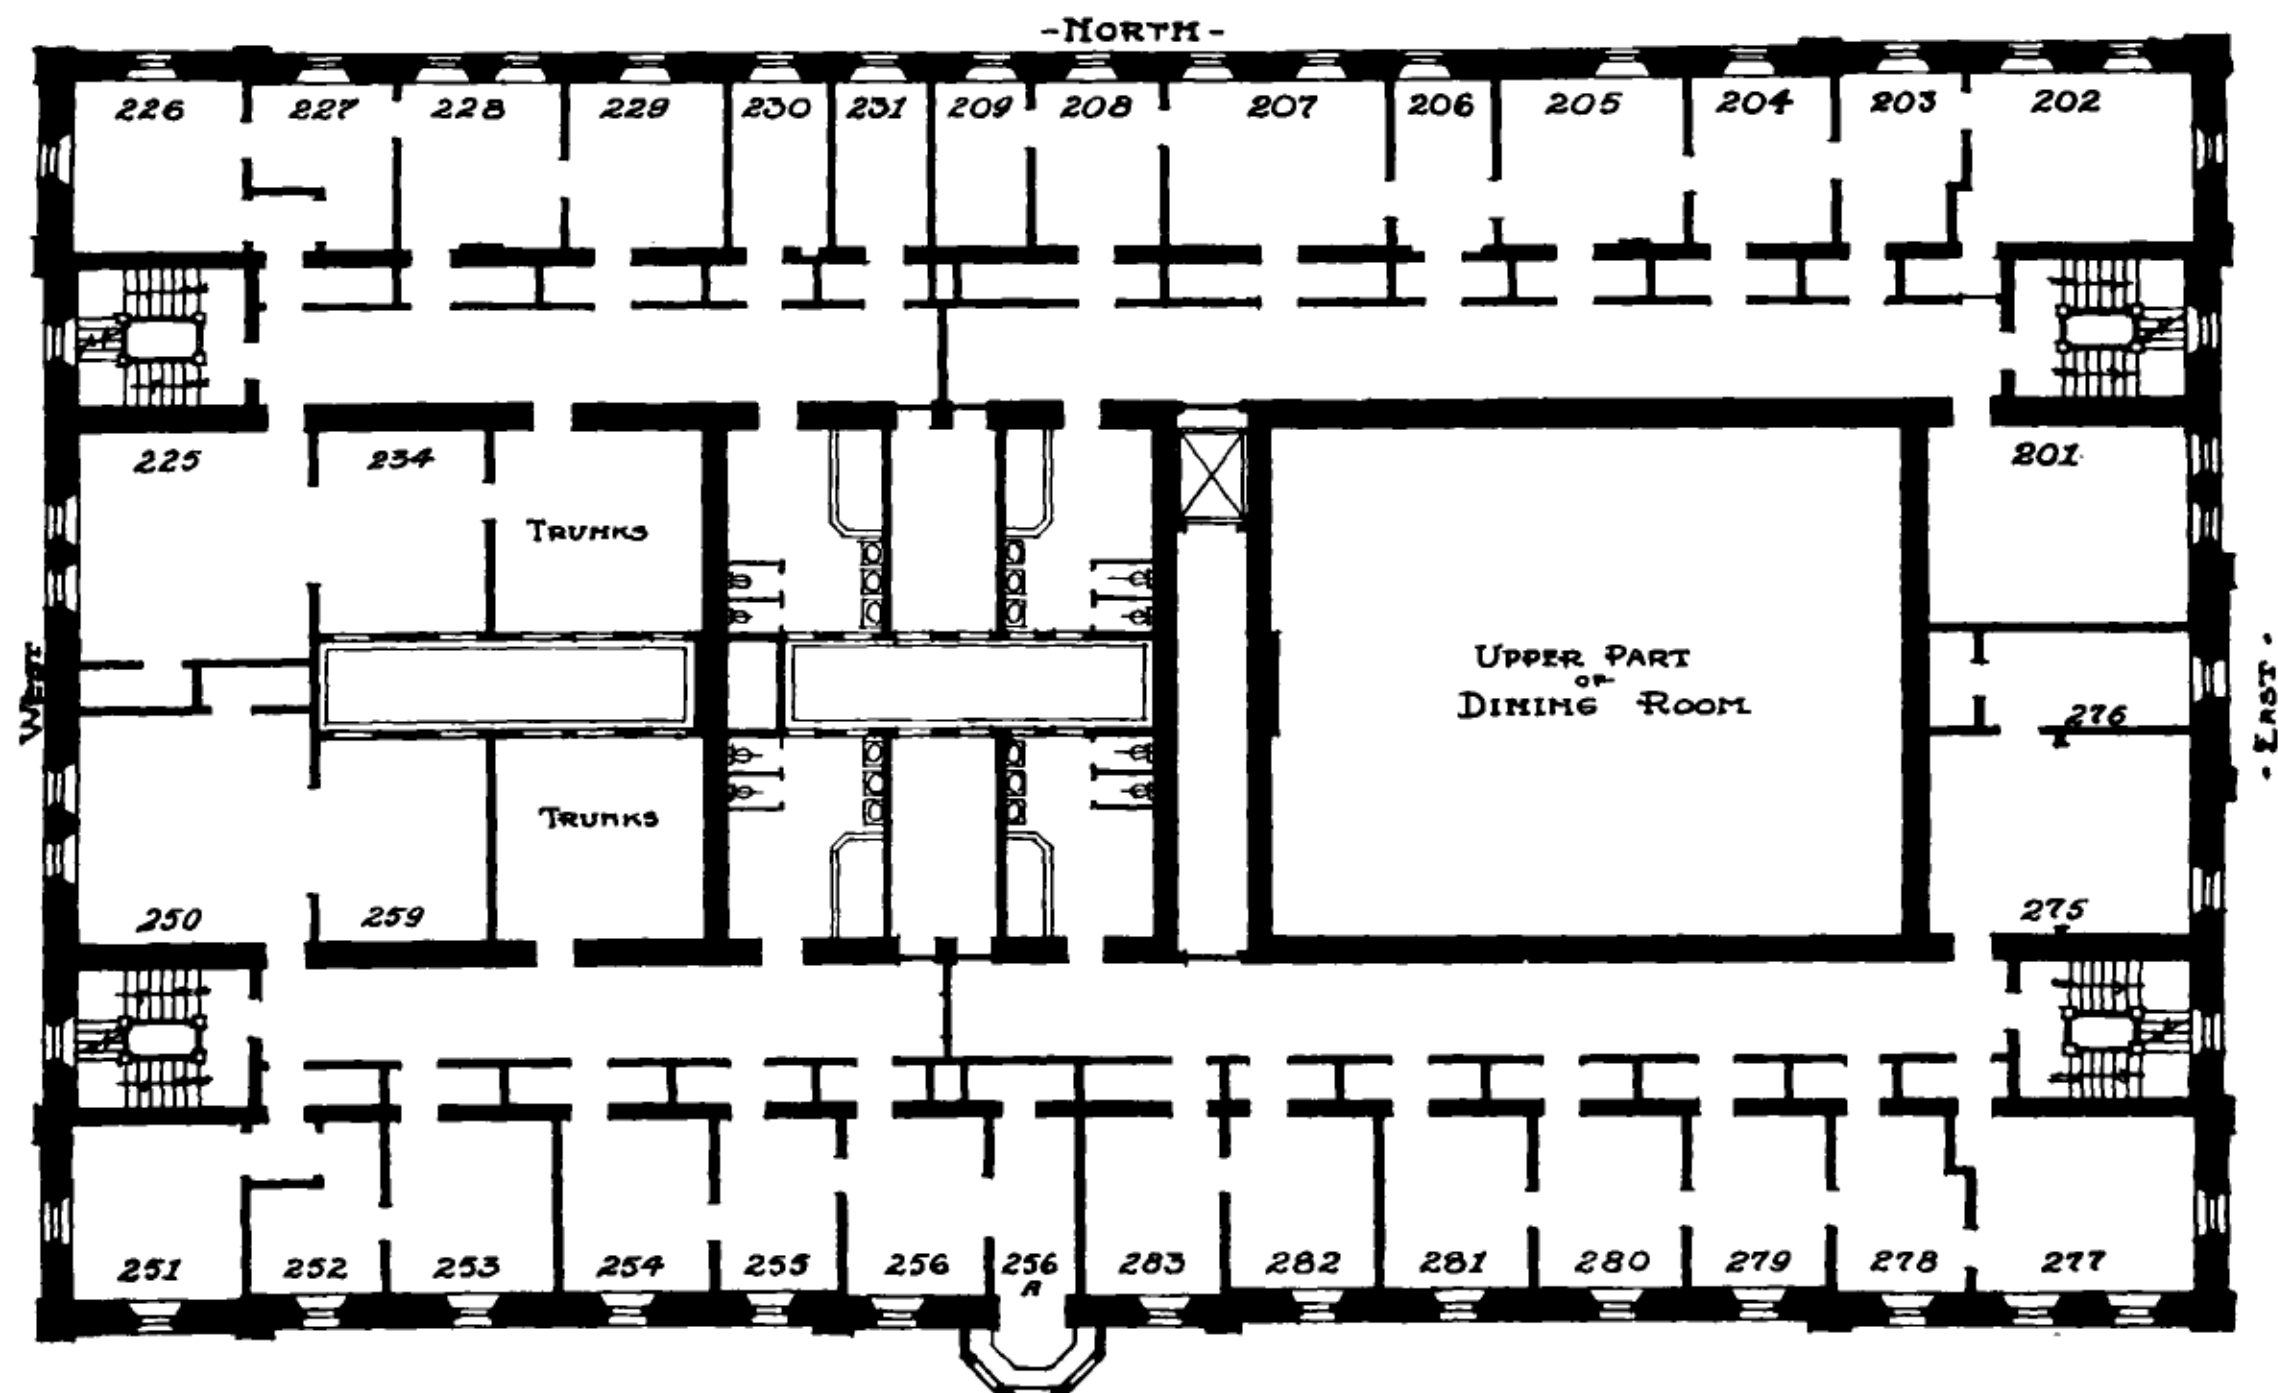

Students residing in the Residential Halls are governed by the rules appearing below and by the ordinary rules of the University. It is the intention of the authorities that the different units be self-governing and in so far as practicable, the students are left to the management of their own affairs. The different buildings are in charge of overseers and the direct management of the dormitories is centered in the Manager of Residential Halls in Sage College. A general assembly room is provided in each of the new buildings for the use of the occupants.
